We dedicate another issue to our representative in Congress, Arkansas Long-staple Ford, the man who changed the rules and called for another game when I won the postmaster-ship fairly, squarely and honestly.

The cartoon you see on this page was borrowed from Mississippi Short-staple Rayburn, the man who is going to send Arkansas no-staple back to Arkansas.

It has been suggested that the cartoon be changed by putting a big sign, "No White People Allowed", on the milking (or Arkansas) end of the cow.

We are mighty sorry to hear that our extra good friend, John James, is quite ill at his home at Pleasant Grove, Grenada County never produced a better man, a more hospitable man, a more good-natured man.

The Trust Bank has installed some new screen doors. Thus Grenada grows.

Mississippi Short-staple Rayburn will not throw away HIS OWN yardstick, the Arkansas Long-staple Ford did.

We are mighty sorry to hear that the condition of the wife of our good friend, Sam Blair, is very serious.

Sam Osborne, attorney of Greenwood in the swamp, and an old barroom friend, participated in the doings at Circuit Court this week.

The proposed selective service law will play hell with the male colleges. "Men over 21, and not needed in essential industry" will get most of the college boys.

A large "fraud" has not answered the questions that are being asked publicly the third time this week.

Captain Jim Shaw is able to walk about after hobnobbing several weeks.

Bill will have to get some more "advisers" here in Grenada County. Adverser Sax Weir is sick in Veterans' Hospital. Adverser C. E. Coleman is sick at home. Adverser Lon Thomas has not been seen in Grenada in weeks and weeks.

Creditors of the county are invited to read a legal ad from J.P. Pressgrove.

With this sun beaming down from a cloudless sky, everybody is getting hot like Squirrel Smith.

Mary Cain relented and placed us back on her mailing list, even if we did not swear allegiance to Thomas L. Bailey.

Keene Hufington has resumed his vacation at the bank, beginning this Monday.

Unlike old times, when half the evil doers left town to keep from going before the grand jury, not a one left Sunday night.

In fact, looking over the crowd at the court house Monday morning, it looked like all of them were here and they had some company from the free State of Little Texas.

I have a bad cold, also a bad case of longstapleitis, something like colitis, only worse.

Harry Greenfield, listening to the broadcast of the Democratic Convention, stated that it was the most one-sided affair he ever heard, something like when they go to counting Rayburn's votes.

John Murray will soon celebrate his 28th year of business in Grenada. John is a pretty good old scout. He and his wife have reared a fine set of children and both of them still look pretty young.

Uncle Pete is not finding so many empty whiskey bottles in the toilets as he used to. The whiskey business is on the blink in Grenada.

Fred Griffin's new awning looks right civilized. Fred is as fixy as an old maid.

Haven't heard a good word spoken for Ford lately, not even that he has a good appetite.

Several from here went on the Know Dennis Murphree Better Train, and report a wonderful trip.

Farmer Jordan has a fine hay crop down in his cotton patch.

Please do not make us dun you for your renewal. The charter members are "out" this week.

Wanted: Another yardstick. See A. Large Fraud.

Arch and Sel Roane do not seem to be worrying much about the future.

Horton's to Build New Brick Store On Green Street

Within a short time Horton and Horton, progressive Green Street merchants, and owned by the two Horton Brothers, Sanford and Ray, will tear away the old and unsightly warehouse next to their store and build thereon a 20x100 brick building to be used for their dry goods department. The entire lot, about 100x150, on which the old warehouse sits was bought last week from its owners, Moss Brothers, but for the present only 30 foot frontage will be used. Mr. Ray Horton and his mother, we understood, bought the lot. Horton and Horton's present quarters which they have occupied for about twelve years have become too small to accommodate their large and growing stock, handling as they do almost everything that is needed by anyone, including dry goods, hardware, implements, feed, fancy and staple groceries.

These young men, neither of whom is much if any past 35 years, have worked hard and intelligently, have practiced economy in operation, employed sagacity in buying and selling, and have dealt honestly with their customers, and have scored about as big a success as any young men in Grenada.

Thus Grenada Grows.

Bill Saunders Discusses Yalobusha Drainage

Bill Saunders, owner and operator of Trop Plantation, and a sufferer from the recent severe overflows along the Yalobusha River, was guest speaker at the Rotary Club Tuesday. He briefly outlined his ideas of flood control along the river, stating what he had heard by letter from the army engineers, and requested that the Rotary Club get behind the idea of having dams built on this river, as they are on the Tallahatchie. Mr. Vassar Dubard and W. W. Whitaker, both of whom have attended all drainage meetings and have bitterly opposed the building of dams on this river in all such meetings, agreed that their objections to these dams had been removed, and these two gentlemen agreed to contact Congressman Whittington and Duxey (what about Long-staple) and help see what can be done about the matter. Mr. Dubard was named as a representative of the club to attend the next drainage meeting scheduled to be held soon.

Lexington Leads Grenada In Golf Tournament

In the Yazoo Valley Inter-Club Golf Tournament Lexington, playing on home ground, led Grenada 8 points. The quarter score is: Lexington 59, Grenada 51, Yazoo City 43, and Canton 38. Henry Ray, Jr., tied the Lexington course record, with a score of 65, five under par.

The next match will be held in Grenada Sunday, July 28th.

The ladies from Yazoo City were leading the field with a margin of 14 points, Yazoo City 84, Grenada 20, Canton 11, and Lexington 2.

The Grenada ladies that participated in the tournament were: Mrs. J. A. Cooper, Hazel Turner, Mrs. E. E. Penn, and Mrs. H. A. Alexander.

The men's team is composed of 12 members, their names follow in the position that they shoot. Henry Ray, Jr., Ed Penn, J. A. Cooper, Cliff Bailey, Julian Lockett, Edridge Parks, Ernest Penn, Burt Bays, H. A. Ray, C. A. Bailey and Paul Lockett.

Dr. C. K. Bailey predicts that Grenada will assume the lead Sunday when the match is brought to Grenada. Several of Grenada's best players were unable to play in the first match but will be on hand Sunday, however, Cliff Bailey who shoots in the No. 4 position will be out of town.

Rev. Pat Easterling, native son of Grenada, now the pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Excelsior Springs, Mo., conducted the united Vesper Services at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday evening. CIRCUIT COURT OPENED MIDSUMMER SESSION MONDAY; CASES CLAIM MUCH INTEREST

K. G. Rayburn Spoke to Large Crowd Saturday

Hon. Kendall G. Rayburn, candidate for Congress from the Fourth Congressional District charged Congressman A. L. Ford with being a reactionary Democrat, and said that he had no sympathy for that element of the Democratic Party, because it did not represent the fundamental teachings of Democracy, but were autocrats operating under an alias.

The leading Pontotoc candidate was introduced by Hon. Marshall Perry, county attorney.

Speaking before an unusually large crowd here last Saturday, Mr. Rayburn said that the old Democratic custom of rotation in office was one of the first principles of Democracy.

Pointing to the fact that Agriculture is a primary problem, Mr. Rayburn said that he would seek a place on the Agriculture Committee and not on the Foreign Affairs Committee, if he is elected. We do not need a man on the Foreign Affairs Committee from this district. We do not have any international bankers and export merchants in the 4th district of Mississippi.

Mr. Rayburn charged that "when Ford was campaigning for Congress in 1934, he went all over the district while the hot July sun was beaming down on his head, and promised the people, if he was elected to Congress, he would invest his money in the 4th Congressional District. But what did he do? He went over in Arkansas and bought 998.54 acres of that rich alluvial delta land in Mississippi County, one of the largest long staple cotton producing counties in the world. He is therefore, in direct competition with the cotton farmers in this section of Mississippi.

"Mr. Ford also promised the people," he continued, "that he would hire his secretary from the Fourth District. He hired his own sister at a salary of $3250 per year, and also hired his brother. Both were residents outside of the Fourth District and neither of them performed the duties of the office for which they were paid."

"A. L. Ford claims that he has been responsible for every WPA project throughout the District," Mr. Rayburn said, "however, to my mind this does not sound reasonable because it is a known fact that he has been fighting the administration on nearly every major issue."

MISSISSIPPI BENEFIT ASSOCIATION MEETS

Members of the Mississippi Benefit Association met for a brief business session in the office in Grenada Tuesday morning. They enjoyed a nice luncheon together as well as discussed business matters of mutual interest.

Our country friends who attended court this week were grievously disappointed that they could not get any government licker here. All they could get was some of the Peaylee scotch.

Tommy Rose, the old man, is up and about after being on the lift for a week.

HEAT BUCKLES SI PAVEMENT

Hundreds of people were attracted to the intersection of Union Street and U. S. Highway 51 in Grenada Wednesday to view the buckled pavement at that point, which had been caused by the excessive heat. Highway workmen worked all night Wednesday night to chisel away with a pneumatic hammer about four inches from the end of the buckled section.

Too narrow expansion joints explain the buckling.

POSTMASTERS MEET HERE SUNDAY

The postmasters of Districts 1, 2, 3 and 4, met in a business and social session at Barwin Hotel in Grenada Sunday afternoon last. Luncheon in the Coffee Shop was followed by a business session held in the large auditorium of the hotel.

About thirty-five persons, representing almost as many communities, were present.

Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Provine and son, Leon, are visiting their two sons, Robert and James Provine, in Tulsa, Okla., and are having a big time.

Mitchell, whose sentence my man Vinch commuted, is still at Parchman.

Notes Taken This Week At Circuit Court

The grand jury took on a casual atmosphere as Dewey Avery was a member of that body.

Everything done at this term of the court may be overruled as Cousin Ira was out neither of the three juries.

The country is safe, Roger Parker is foreman of the grand jury.

Charlie Worsham and his deputy, Alvin Bridges, are acting like veterans. J. P. Coleman, the district attorney, has about got over the Democratic Convention, and acted as if he was born in the court room.

The Best Five Carvers were represented by J. W. Carver, Hurrah for all Carvers!

Everybody misses Nink Perry yelling "order in the court", and Albert Long at the gate. Nink is in Yalobusha County, while Albert Long is holding St. Peter attend the pearly gate.

Frank York could not get the postoffice from Arkansas Long-staple Ford but did get a good job on the grand jury. Kirk had a time getting along without Frank, his rich hand man.

Eddie Gant will get further in the cross while serving up indictments to the criminals.

They had a real smart fellow in No. two jury, Guy Smart.

It may quit raining, but it is hailing on July Two, as J. P. Halle is on it as wise as a tree filled with old ows.

While the matter was not brought off officially before the juries, we will bet that either of the juries would have said that the high man should have received the postoffice last July when the grades were announced. Ford will not get half a dozen votes from the forty four Jurymen.

Most of the Jurymen are hard working white men, and would not approve of a fellow who will not give members of his own race opportunities of cultivating fertile land.

The McCormick generation was represented by A. B.

Phil Cook did not get on but Judd did and it's all in the family.

All of us miss Brother Lee Tribble from the door of the grand jury room. Brother Tribble is up there helping Albert Long and St. Peter guard the golden gates above.

Judge Allen has plenty of grass in Attala County, as well as in the swamp. We sorter hoped Ford would be down here and publicly answer the questions that we shoot at him each and every week. He is probably busy in Washington dancing.

Ben McElwath was placed on the grand jury and made a good one.

Lester Marter, while neck deep in the grass, served on Jury Two.

Jailor Matt Cooley had on a handsome pair of new pants.

Snip Crenshaw was keeping order in the court while Monroe McKibben was helping out with the records.

Our Mt. Nebo correspondent, G. S. Burke, was present, but keeping still.

Charlie Smith from Batesville was in the court room.

If Oxberry was represented, I did not see its representative. Not an Oxberry fellow on the jury will entitle (Continued on Back Page)

Cattle Thieves Draw Three Years; Heath Case Up

With Judge John F. Allen presiding, and District Attorney J. P. Coleman and County Attorney Marshall Perry serving for the State, the midsummer session of Circuit Court opened Monday morning. The Judge waived most of the preliminaries and launched into the selection of the personnel of the grand jury and of the two petty juries. After swearing in the jurors, and after having the roll of county and district officers called, Judge Allen proceeded to charge the grand jury, which he did with his usual simplicity and directness. After the noon recess Judge Allen appointed Senator Gary of Quitman County to address the people upon the propriety of Senator Bill Blount's reelection. Senator Gary stated that he knew both candidates, having served in the legislature while each of them was governor; that he liked each candidate, but preferred Blount for the reason that, he thought, it would be hazardous to change horses in the midst of the great national emergency.

The grand jury, with Roger Parker as Foreman, is composed of the following: Frank York, H. J. Beatty, J. N. Payne, Perry Cohen, James Purdie, E. W. Gant, Charlie Trussell, J. F. Clark, Harry Powell, B. S. Avery, J. C. Tharpe, Perry M. Mahen, Walter Jackson, J. W. Carver, Ben McElwath, Will Marter, James McMahen, R. G. Cook, and J. M. Becham.

Petty Jury No. 1 was composed of the following: Tom J. Ross, W. G. Clark, Wallace Smart, Lewis Williams, Corde Plank, Robert Thompson, T. P. Hall, A. B. McCormick, John Chapman, C. C. Perry, Howard James, and J. P. Boye.

Petty Jury No. 2 was composed of the following: J. L. Robinson, Jim Keesh, Lester Marter, Conrad McRitt, Rheney Wilcox, Thomas Ligon, Porter Cook, Larry Wilson, Belton M. Smith, Richard Tinkle, L. J. Cook, and Guy Smart.

The white men charged with breaking a negro's leg near before went to the jury which, after spending Tuesday night locked up, was docked 9 to 8.

Three white youths, charged with stealing three cows from Senator W. A. Winter, were given three years at Parchman. Two more years for them.

The case of the men charged with robbing John Heath's at the point of a gun was continued until this (Thursday) morning. Some difficulty was experienced in securing witnesses, the sheriff having to make a trip to Neshoba County and Deputy Ira Parks to Lauderdale County.

Cases of minor importance to the general public of importance to the individuals concerned, is occupying the of the court, and it is estimated that, if the docket is cleared completely, court will last well into next week. So far it has been one of those "draggy" sessions about which no one can do anything, for the law gives the defendant the benefit of every possible opportunity.

The grand jury adjourned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell Moving to Clarksdale

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell are to move to Clarksdale next week where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Mitchell, who has been salesman for Deak Hardware Co. for the past seven years, has received a better position in the Delta city with Henderson-Baird Hardware Company.

Mr. Mitchell has made many friends during his stay in Grenada both in the business and social groups. Mrs. Mitchell, while taking part in the social activities of the young married set, seemed primarily interested in the Garden Club, of which she was president last year. She also took great interest in antiques and owns many rare pieces.

The Grenada County Weekly regret at their departure is somewhat softened by the hope and belief that they will live long and prosper abundantly in their new home in the swamp.

Lost: Lou Thomas.

Speaking of Thomas, Shed Thomas, Lon's boy, raises as fine Irish potatoes as he makes sausage, and that's saying plenty. Shed is a hustler and is going to amount to something before he dies.

Mr. Nebo, they say, is going to stick with Billie.

County Buying Tightening Up

Attention is invited to a notice published herein from John Pressgrove, Chancery Clerk.

In the future, purchases upon the county's credit will be restricted to the purchases which are made upon signed requisitions. Buying by Tom, Dick and Harry will cease.

This is a very wise step that is being taken, and sellers are urged to observe the very simple regulations regarding selling goods and services to the county, or to any of its subdivisions.

For example: Road Foreman (or supervisor) of Beat 7 wants a shovel. He writes out in quadruplicate an order to Roberts Hardware Co., and sends the original and one copy to Roberts. Within ten days Roberts attaches the original to his invoice and files with the clerk. Another copy is filed by the purchaser with the clerk, and the fourth copy is kept by the purchaser. The person who actually receives the goods must sign a receipt for the goods, preferably upon the requisition itself.

The county is a darn good customer to many persons. The county is in the aggregate one of the largest buyers in this community. No other organization as large as the county fails to use some sort of air-tight purchasing system. Many much smaller organizations use such a system. The seller, having regard for his own very good customer, should fully cooperate in this sincere effort upon the part of the county officials to put business methods into this, our greatest business.

Testimony to "Sore Toe's" Integrity

Recent business was scheduled for the Ferdinand Club last Thursday night. Matters of momentous moment, and problems of paramount perplexity were on tap. Betton Bet was called and he stated that he was available.

Hard-boiled Harry was called and he stated that he was available.

Easy Earl was called and he stated that he was available.

Honest John was called and he stated that he was available.

Powertruster McKell was called and he stated that he was available.

Testy Tom was called and he stated that he was available.

Lying Clarence was called and he stated that he was available.

Willful William was called and he stated that he was available.

Smiling Sam was called and he stated that he was available.

Sore-toe Whitaker was called, but it developed that he was in Biloxi, so the meeting was called off, as his reputation for accuracy and integrity is so great that his fellow members would not entrust the handlings of their funds to anyone else.

Arkansas Long-staple Ford, be sure to read this.

Throwing Apostle Luke at Him

In the 34th verse of the 12th Chapter of the Gospel according to Luke, we find: "For where your treasure is, there will be your heart also."

Misrepresentative Ark. L. S. Ford owns 1,000 acres of farm land in Arkansas—practically nothing in the Fourth District of Mississippi. His treasure is in another state, and his work in Congress has been directed to benefitting that state. He has done nothing for his own district.

Look at the cotton allotments of the two areas. In Arkansas Delta counties, a traveler along the highways can see hardly anything but cotton. The allotment ranges from 50 per cent upwards on this TWO BALES land. The laws permitting this allotment were passed while Ark. L. S. Ford was misrepresenting this district. He looked after his "treasure" house. In traveling the highways and byways of the 4th Congressional District of Mississippi, one can hardly see ANY cotton. The allotment ranges from 25 per cent DOWNWARD on this ONE-HALF BALE land. Ark. L. S. Ford was there when the laws permitting this rank discrimination were passed. He did NOT look after the interests of his district.

Look at flood control. Ark. L. S. Ford has a government-built levee to protect HIS Arkansas acres. The laws passed to permit the building of this levee were passed while Ark. L. S. Ford was misrepresenting this district. Look now at the Yazoo, Skuna, Byby, Big Black, and all other streams in the 4th Congressional District. The valleys of these streams are still covered with water. The valleys of these streams have NO protection whatever.

Me and Rayburn.

CASCILLA NEWS

Mrs. Curtis Whitten was the charming hostess for the W. M. S. for a social evening when every member was present, also one visitor. The guests were entertained with three very interesting contests after which a delicious salad course was served.

On the evening of the 19th a shower was given in honor of Miss Minnie Frances Pressgrove, a bride-to-be. This was given in the home of Mrs. Harris Whitten when friends and relatives met together bringing their lovely gifts to the bride. The guests were entertained with games and after the gifts were all on display a delectable salad course was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheat, of Crowder, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Wheat's mother, Mrs. John Whitten.

Miss Sadie Rice, of Sumner, is the guest of Mrs. V. A. Bridges for the week-end.

A marriage of much interest took place in Cascilla on the 19th. Mr. Charles Shackelford and Mrs. C. A. Shackelford were quietly married, having been married once before.

Mrs. Lewis Scott, of Memphis, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Alice Shackelford.

Grenada and the IC

Here are some bare facts about the I. C. System's relations with this community. It employs 104 Grenada County citizens, and pays them $146,000 per year; it purchases about $975,000 worth of products in this county; it pays in taxes in this county $38,523.00; its total expenditures in this county are $1,083,975.

Analyzing these bare figures a bit, we find that its employees constitute the best paid group in the county, as the average annual salary of each is nearly $1,400. People of that earning power are able to buy many things, to attend the picture shows, pay the preachers and doctors, and contribute to community activities, as well as being a group of home-owners who pay taxes to maintain schools and government.

In the entire state of Mississippi the I. C. purchases $1,548,000 worth of products; in this county, $975,000 worth. In short MORE purchases are made in Grenada County than in all the other 81 counties of the state.

Although the I. C. is Grenada County's greatest taxpayer with a tax bill of $38,000 plus, we have never heard of the I. C. protesting the issuance of a school bond, a road bond, or a bond for any other purpose, even though that corporation will bear a great part of the burden.

The I. C. System is one of Grenada's best citizens.

Throwing Apostle Matthew at Him

"For where your treasure is, there will be your heart also," Matthew 6:21.

Our misrepresentative in Congress, Arkansas Long-staple Ford, has about 1,000 acres of rich alluvial land in Mississippi County, Arkansas, the world's premier cotton producing area.

Our misrepresentative in Congress, Arkansas Long-staple Ford, misrepresenting the Fourth Congressional District of Mississippi, has nothing in this state and district except a key to a hotel room in Ackerman, Mississippi.

Records in the county court house in Mississippi County, Arkansas show that Arkansas Long-staple Ford, Misrepresentative of the Fourth Congressional District of Mississippi, show that he furnishes his hands there all the way from three hundred to over six hundred dollars, and takes mortgages on everything, including mules and (God help us!) THEIR INCREASE. Think of the ignorance of a man who opines that a mule, who has been described as an animal with no pride in ancestry and no HOPE OF POSTERITY, has mules. Think of a man so cautious with his money, and its security, that he takes mortgages on the mule's INCREASE!

Anyway, if the Bible is true (and even our Misrepresentative in Congress, Arkansas Long-staple Ford, will not deny that) the heart of our Misrepresentative in Congress, Arkansas Long-staple Ford, is in Arkansas, and not in the Fourth Congressional District of Mississippi, for the "treasure" (all of it) of our Misrepresentative in Congress, Arkansas Long-staple Ford, is in Arkansas.

What of Ford

At the Rotary Club Tuesday, there was much discussion of the necessity of something being done to control the disastrous floods that have recently devastated our valley and which perennially bring disaster to this valley.

The MOST significant thing about this discussion was this: That those who spoke brought in the name of Congressman Whittington and Congressman Doney as sources of help in this undertaking, and that the name of Congressman Ford was not mentioned, except in an off-hand, jesting manner.

And well might these people ignore Ford, for Ford has done nothing to alleviate the situation. It is believed that Ford has been too busy getting the government to build a huge levee protecting his plantation IN ARKANSAS that he has not bothered with flood problems in HIS OWN DISTRICT.

And well might those Rotarians praise and respect Will Whittington and Wall Doney for both of those gentlemen have been alive to the interests of THEIR OWN districts.

Oh well, Rayburn will do something for us.

Congressional Grading

Our good friend Editor Whyte Whitaker of Grenada seems to have been a victim of politics by Congressman "Arkansas Long-staple" Ford as he termed him, in getting the job as postmaster at Grenada. The Grenada editor was high man at one time in the first general election, but for some unaccountable reason, he gradually lost his standing until he was "out." That also is hard to understand, as ratings go, and the genial gentleman even withdrew from the race for the Legislature as he did not want the county to have another election in event he was named, naturally surmising that high man on grades would get the postmastership. Apparently it all works around to the fact that civil service grades mean nothing if your favorite Congressman makes the final grade. As Brother Whitaker found out, his $9.48 cancelled out 0.

—The Lexington Advertiser

Do you remember that little song, "Died in the Committee", that Ford sang about Jeff Busby? Jeff at least got some bills as far as the committee. A. Large Fraud never got one that far, so far as we know.

Little Joan Rayne was brought home from the Grenada Hospital Sunday

All the "Duck" Gaffey children are up and about again.

Attended preaching at The First Thursday evening heard the visiting preacher, Brother Bullard preach and saw big Bailey and the two little Bailey's that we have very much got after the visiting preacher for leaving us until after our bed time and some of the ladies said they wished we had been there the first of the week. Asa Morris asked us how we managed to get by talking to a preacher that way, but they have always been our friends, and we say what we please. Never saw but one we were willing to have very much sleep for and we were about the size of little Rebecca Morris and there was such a mob that we were blinded out of our feet, almost sitting on top of a big fat plant's head basket; the kindly gentleman, Mr. M. J. arm around us and said, "What he afraid little girl I will take care of you", and he did and got us safely on that train. The place was Grenada and the preacher was Sam Jones. Have always had a very tender feeling for all gentlemen of partly proportion ever since.

Going to nose around Grenada Sunday just to see what what we can see lots of these people living there—some of them came from Duck Hill. R. J. Smith the neighbor, says his dog, named "Duck", died in 1911. His dog was named "Duck" because he was moving from Duck Hill to somewhere else.

MT. NEBO NEWS

As we approached the court house Monday morning in Grenada, we stooped over to suck the water fountain. Our specks being in the back pocket, some poor misguided bolshevik deftly took them, but as luck would have it our "law", Wessie Mahan came up and he swears by the point of his knife and also all the cats of kidpenny, that such a dastardly crime and pulled off right under the very dripping of the sanctuary would be punished severely and the dastard, shown no benefit of clergy and right then the eloquent voice of Judge Allen could be heard, charging the jury, and they swearing and denouncing to uphold the law and constitution and see that no guilty go unpunished "and so mote it be."

Ollie Clarke has just returned from a trip to Nashville and Corinth and reports unusual activity up there.

Hon. Mr. Gore's speech at Grenada seemed to take well. Opinion here is that we should make it as unanimous at Nebo as possible.

Many thanks to Mrs. John Provice and Miss Winnie Hall for kindly giving us news trips of visitors to help out our column.

The body of little Aneta Malone, of Blytheville, Ark., accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Malone, arrived here this morning to be buried at Shiloh at noon today. Mrs. Malone was formerly Miss Opal Hendrix, a very dear friend of the writer of this and his wife and we weep with those that weep.

Hardy Carter attended a birthday dinner at Uncle Calvin Cohen's Monday. All regret he has is that there was only one of him to do justice to or by that fine feed.

The band wagon will soon have to put on an extra trailer, as the even flag it down. Its a busier thing than we ever dreamed of. No insatiation intended by above, but cold facts.

Office force of GCW makes a poor country fellow feel as if he has a niche to fill. Anyway it is a good place to go for the glad hand and inspiration.

Mr. C. J. Allen, our brother-in-law from Water Valley, visited briefly in our home while attending court in Grenada.

Mr. Allen told us this tale about Water Valley's sterling citizen, Mr. Sam Hervey, a friend met Mr. Hervey on the street and reminded him in a joking way that all rich folks should adopt some of the refugee children from England. Mr. Hervey thought for a moment and with a characteristic straight look at the person to whom he spoke, asked, "this pertinent question, 'can they chop cotton?'"

There was little grass killed at Mt. Nebo Monday, as all of the Neboltes were in Grenada helping Judge Allen open court.

R. H. Herring, our neighbor in the street, visited briefly on Lower Beale Street Monday.

Nobody killed on 5th south Saturday night. In fact, 5th south has got quite religious here since the blitzkrieg has started.

Marshall Perry has been the Judge of the County Blitzkrieg Division and has done the service in making witnesses out of our first school superintendents.

A national woman's magazine recently asked its readers what they did with their spare time. Over 103 different diversions were included in the answers with those listed above among the most popular. Not mentioned was the fact that few women had time for diversions before modern electric service came to free them from household drudgery and toil. TODAY, however, home-managers can and do enjoy their favorite diversions and they have plenty of time for them, too.
